

WGH Young Professionals Networking Event

Join us to discuss career pathways in global health, followed by an apero.

Grow your network and connect with women across the spectrum of career stages, backgrounds and fields at this networking event that aims to inspire and support young professionals!

Wednesday July 6 at 5pm

Café of Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute
Kreuzstrasse 2, Allschwil, near Basel

Everyone is welcome to join this growing community of colleagues committed to supporting Women in Global Health.

This is the first of what we hope are many events to come and we welcome your participation and inputs into future initiatives.

Please, register here: bit.ly/WGHnetworking by Monday, 4 July and share this invitation widely with your interested network.

We are very much looking forward to meeting you!
